The GUIDANCE department after one year of operation received a new director with the appointment of Mr. James Doheny. Through his diligence, changes have come about which facilitate the services to the students. The pleasantness and friendly smile of Mr. Doheny will be missed when he retires at the end of this school year. The Administration, faculty and students of P.T.H.S. wish him Godspeed.

Mr. James P. Doheny
Director of Guidance

Mrs. Jane Croshaw—Nurse

The NURSE'S OFFICE is an integral part of the school life. Mrs. Jane Croshaw, after working in the Borough schools, came to P.T.H.S. when it opened. Problems concerning the health of the students has been her main concern through these years of growth. The best wishes of P.T.H.S. for an interesting and happy retirement go to Mrs. Croshaw.

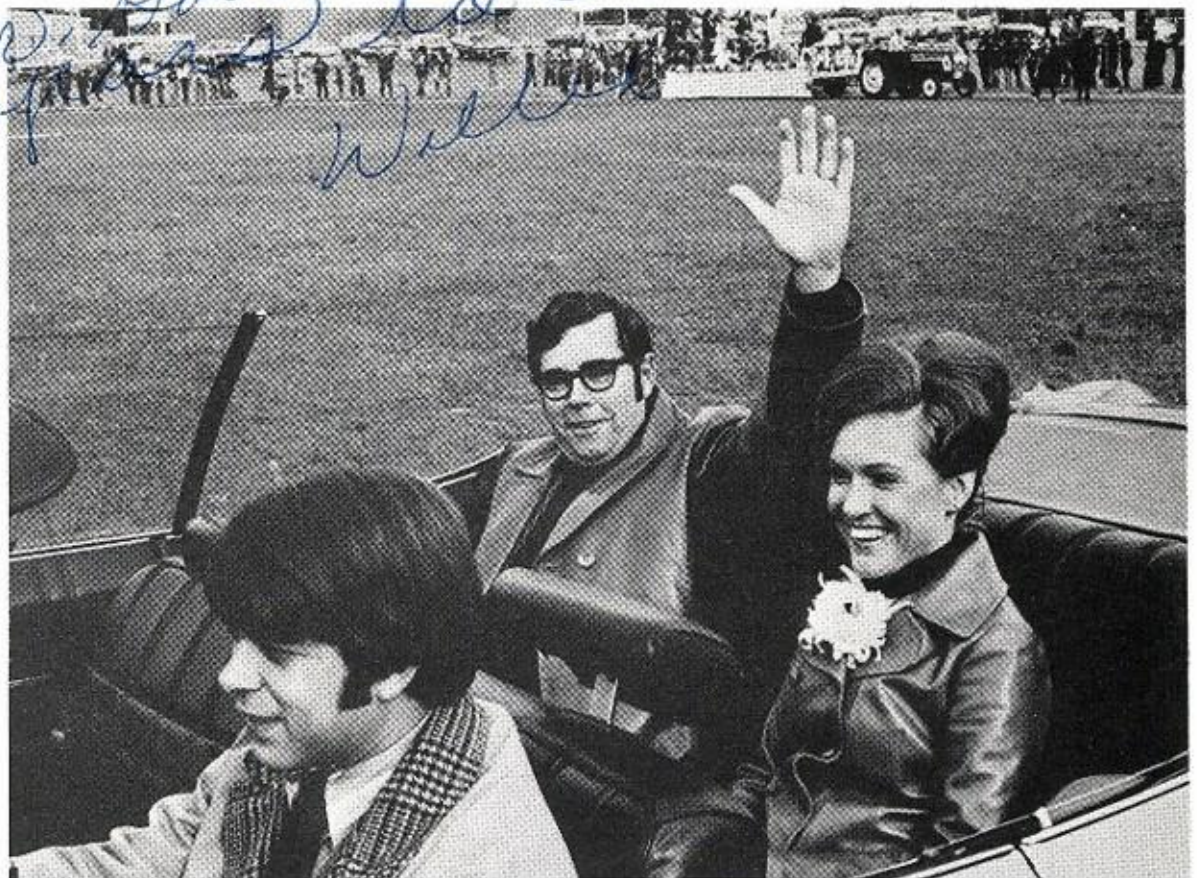

Dr. Dominick DiNunzio

The PAST and the PRESENT met in September when Dr. DiNunzio left our high school and Mr. Harrington became our new principal. Dr. DiNunzio is working on the plans for the new high school where he will be principal. Mr. Harrington will continue as principal of P. J. H. S.

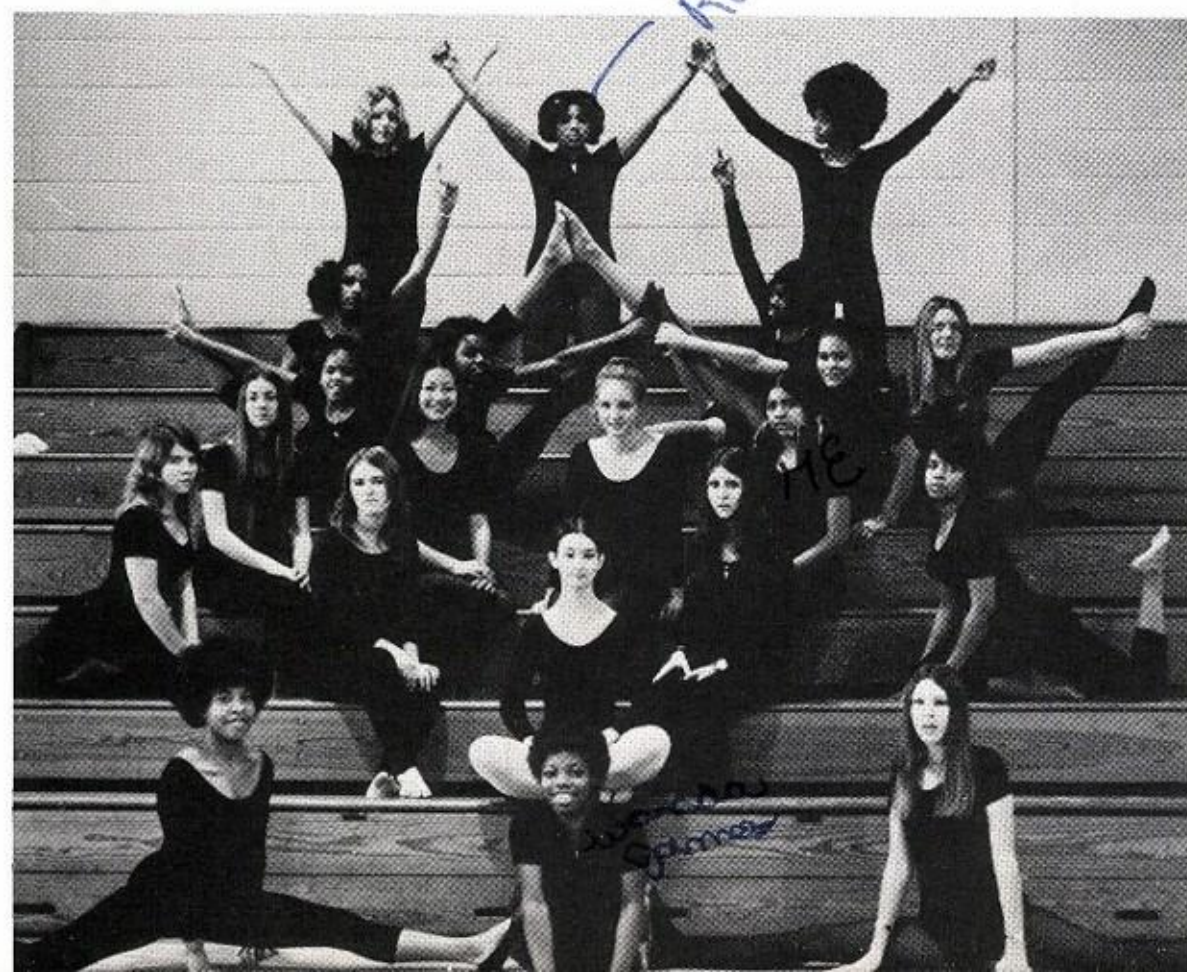

Persey to a soulful death who I had known with this year. Good luck in the year to come. Well...

The GRADUATION class has grown from our first class of about one hundred graduates to over four hundred in the Class of '73. During the first few years, the graduation exercises were held in the gymnasium but, as the classes grew in number, the athletic field has been the scene of this activity.

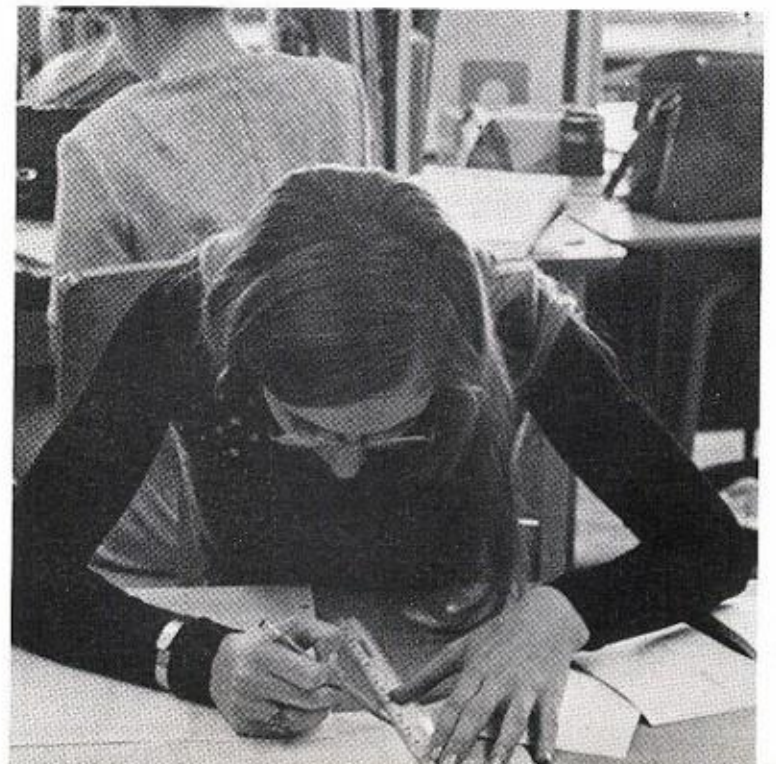

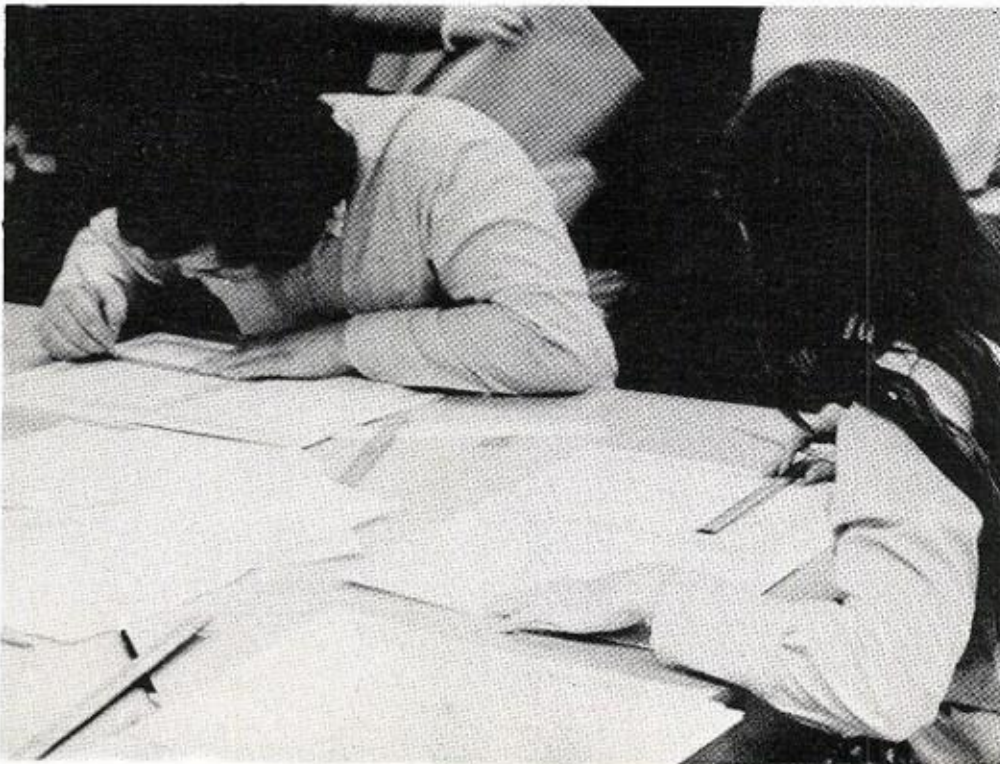

The HUMAN RELATIONS COUNCIL is one of the recent innovations in our school. Under the direction of Assistant Principal James Malvern, representatives of the faculty and the student body meet to discuss problems of concern within the school community and to discuss means of bringing about a better understanding between the school community and the community-at-large.

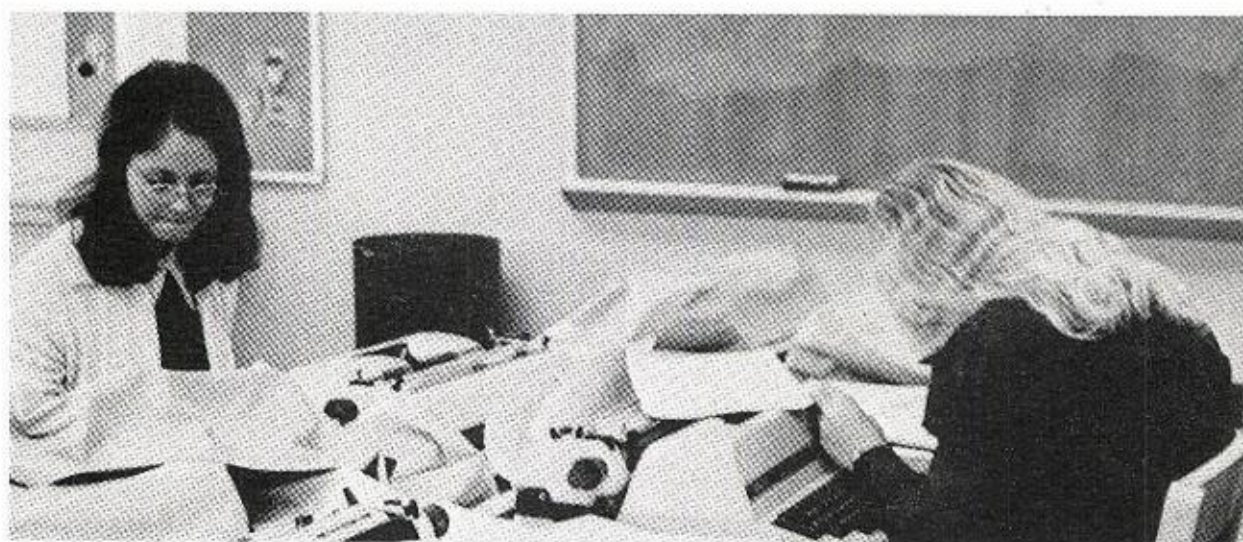

The CITATIONS covers the phases of school life from the ordinary routine to the special events.

The Council has worked to bring about a successful Homecoming Weekend. They have sponsored the Winter Ball held in January. They have improved the school atmosphere by their innovations in the daily routine of school life including hall passing, snack breaks, locker privileges, and other concerns of the students. The relationship with the Board of Education has taken on a new perspective by Council representation at the monthly Board meetings. Other interests are many including their work to help charitable organizations, to improve the community understanding, and to bring about changes which the students desire in their school life.

Mr. John J. Harrington

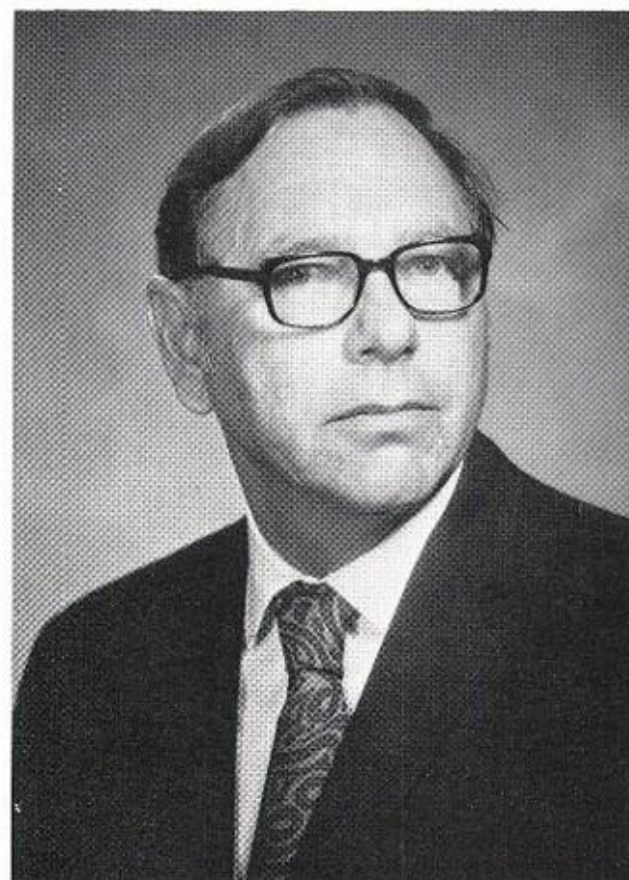

To Our 1973 Graduates:

You have lived during one of the most turbulent times in the history of America. The scene at home and abroad was marred by strife and confusion and there is no doubt that these strains, along with many other unprecedented changes in society made living a more hectic experience for all of us, but especially for the young. There is no doubt either that these phenomena played a part in the process of becoming educated—for better or for worse. Perhaps one of the "fringe benefits," as it were, of these influences is the questioning attitude of our young people today. Although questioning and challenging can be overdone or can even become ridiculous, by-and-large, they are the benchmarks of an educated person. Apathy, indifference, and the "taking things for granted" attitude stem in part from ignorance, lethargy and lack of substantial values. One way to reinforce and to revive waning convictions is to respectfully reexamine our basic value system and I feel most of you are doing that. There is good evidence that many of you have stabilized at a higher level of humanity because of your searching spirits and this augers well for you, your children and for a country founded on basic human striving. Our founding fathers challenged the "system" and gave birth to a great country. May all of you bring your creative energies to bear in a similar manner so that posterity will look back in gratitude and admiration. Let it be said that humanness was at its best during this generation.
